

2-Week Emergency Move Checklist

Last-minute move? No problem! There's no helping that it'll be a bit of a crunch, but here's how to keep your cool and stay focused when you've got just two weeks or less to get it all done.

Days 1–3

- Get quotes and book movers or trailer services immediately (MovingPlace's Smart Match Technology can help you compare fast)
- Pack essentials and valuables first
- Sort and donate items you won't be taking
- Notify employer, landlord, and family or roommates

Days 4–7

- Label and pack remaining items, room by room
- Arrange help for kids, pets, or errands
- Set up new utilities and cancel old ones
- File a change of address with USPS and update accounts

Final Days

- Pack a moving day bag with toiletries, chargers, snacks, etc.
- Clean your old place or schedule a cleaning service
- Confirm movers and review the route Take photos, return keys, and feel some relief — you're finally done!
